INFORMATIVE NOTE

Date 3/13/75

Attached advises that [redacted] long-time Ku Klux Klan (KKK) activist, was to meet with KKK members on 3/12/75 to plan action against [redacted] publicly identified former FBI informant, to make an example of him to other would-be informants. [redacted] was to speak at a firehall or townhall in Chester-Upper Darby, Pennsylvania, evening of 3/12/75.

A subsequent teletype advised that [redacted] scheduled meeting was to be at the Media, Pennsylvania, firehouse to be sponsored by the John Birch Society. An anonymous letter threatening [redacted] was received at the speech location and was turned over to local police who notified [redacted] of the threat. The meeting was held without incident or arrest. Extortion aspect being handled by Gen. Inv. Div.

Dissemination made to Secret Service, and to the Department, the Deputy Attorney General (Analysis and Evaluation Unit), Civil Rights Division and Criminal Division, Internal Security and General Crimes Sections.

Klansman: 'Fight Politically'

By JANET FOX,
Sentinel Staff Reporter

Joe Grady is out of the mainstream of 20th Century America.

He puts women in a special, protected category and won't ever get into an argument with one.

He thinks the fact that the Supreme Court can dictate that his children will be bused across town is un-American.

He feels disgust when he sees a black man dating a white woman.

It bothers him that profane and obscene words appear in school textbooks.

He thinks Henry Kissinger is selling the country down the drain.

And Joe Grady, a Winston-Salem masonry cleaning contractor, was appointed Grand Dragon of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan for North Carolina last week.

It is Grady's style of Klannishness to acknowledge his appointment. The previous Grand Dragon kept his name and klan affiliation a secret.

That isn't Grady's way, although he said he is sure that being known as a klansman hurts his contracting business. "I say, fight politically, but he (Grady's predecessor) says, 'That won't do you any damn good.'"

He is proud of being a long-time member of the klan, and sick of hearing the organization characterized as "night riders burning crosses."

"Look at its accomplishments," he said, and talked of rehabilitating alcoholics and supporting programs for retarded children.

He spoke of the things in our society that bother him: a federal government that is too strong and too liberal, the wastefulness of bureaucracy, the permissive atmosphere in which children are raised, forced busing, pornography, profanity, encroaching communism. Being in the klan is his way of trying to resist those things.

But why the klan, which he knows has a militant, violent, racist image in the minds of many people?

ENCLOSURE

"We want to keep our Southern heritage," Grady said. "I feel a kinship to the Southern white working man."

Grady thinks he represents that man, "not the pseudo-intellectual, or the wealthy, but the white working man." And he thinks the klan represents that man, with its rituals that go back to Reconstruction days, and its old-fashioned values: "God, country, home and the klan, in about that order."

Grady acknowledges that the klan has traditionally been against groups of people — blacks, Jews, Catholics and foreigners — but he personally doesn't damn racial or religious or ethnic groups wholesale.

"The one bunch of people I dislike most are the great yellow society," he said, "the people who are afraid to come out of their living rooms, who don't vote, who don't get involved, who don't even care what happens to their children."

"I have more respect for Larry Little and the Black Panthers than I do for all the chicken white people who sit back and don't participate."

Among these are people who call him and expect the klan to take action, after, for example, a racial incident at a public school.

"If you can't try to improve the situation yourself, I see no use in talking about it," he said.

And in cases where the law offers protection, he thinks people should call the police, not the klan.

Working for and through the klan is how Grady acts on his beliefs and feelings. He likes the companionship of men who share them. He campaigns to elect other men who share them.

"Morally, we're dropping. Spiritually, the country is down," he said, "but it's still the greatest country in the world."

Being Grand Dragon is Grady's approach to preserving the things he sees as great.

EXTREMIST MATTER

ReNKlet 4/8/75, a copy of which is enclosed for Jackson.

Newark should recontact and thoroughly debrief [redacted] for additional details regarding information contained in referenced communication. This information should be promptly set forth in form suitable for dissemination, utilizing individual captions where appropriate. Leads should be set out in detail to verify information from this informant and to notify pertinent interested local authorities.

At this time Newark should not include in its LHM information regarding source's allegation that [redacted] has [redacted] working for him as a "muscle man." Philadelphia conduct investigation regarding substantiation or disproval of this allegation. Any positive information should be set forth in form suitable for dissemination and handled in accordance with existing instructions pertaining to membership of law enforcement officers in extremist organizations. If no additional data is developed, insure information in basic allegation is furnished appropriate local authorities. Remain alert for possible civil rights violations regarding reported beating administered by this [redacted] to individual named [redacted] who reportedly works for [redacted]

With respect to threats against [redacted] former Bureau informant, recipients advise if [redacted] is scheduled to appear within your territories or if information in referenced letter applies to his past visit to Philadelphia territory in 3/75. Philadelphia should insure that [redacted] is advised of any new threats against him and appropriate leads should be set forth to locate him for this purpose. Note [redacted] is office of origin in closed investigation of [redacted]

Philadelphia initiate investigation to identify [redacted] and to verify allegations that he has requested fuses for black powder bombs and that he is in possession of a revolver. Determine extent of his extremist activities and develop his background to determine if he is a convicted felon. Submit results in form suitable for dissemination. Headquarters files contain no identifiable information regarding [redacted]. Remain alert for possible violation of Federal gun laws.

Philadelphia contact appropriate sources acquainted [redacted] to identify [redacted] and to verify plans [redacted] to use this individual as an undercover agent against the Jewish Defense League. Insure New York, as office of origin in investigation of the National Renaissance Party (NRP), is advised of all details in this matter since [redacted] is a close associate of NRP [redacted]

Philadelphia should also initiate investigation to verify residence of [redacted] in Reading, Pennsylvania, and to determine if the National Revolutionary Union exists as a white hate organization. Attempt to verify information that [redacted] and several Klan members were arrested in Reading on or about 3/20/75 and that [redacted] and other individuals may be involved in destruction of a motor vehicle. Newark should determine if [redacted] probation status allows travel and/or residence in Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia should insure local authorities are advised regarding source's allegation that [] plans to arrange "set up" of Officer [] Reading Police Department, and is attempting to plan several burglaries in efforts to get him fired. Use caution to avoid compromise []

Newark and Philadelphia conduct investigation to identify []

[] and an associate of [] and determine if he is involved in extremist activity. If so, report results in form suitable for dissemination.

Regarding administrative aspects of referenced letter, there is no basis to classify information contained therein because it does not fall within purview of national defense data. Characterization of source as reliable should be corrected to "who has furnished reliable information in the past," if this is the case. It is noted that a copy of referenced letter was designated to informant's file. In view of nature of information in the informant's report and possible violations of the law involved, if not already done this information should be handled in accordance with Manual of Instructions, Section 130, in the event source's information is required for future legal proceedings. Newark expeditiously act to correct these deficiencies.

On March 27, 1975, [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that several members from the Ohio National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) (see Appendix) were planning to travel to Charleston, West Virginia, on March 28, 1975, to participate in a two-day rally with the newly formed Klan Organization in that area. Source added that an assessment would be made of the strength of the newly formed Klan unit in that area and that the Klan is now exploiting the textbook controversy in Charleston, West Virginia, for their own and to gather more Klan members into the organization.

Source also stated that some Klansmen may be armed during this two-day function, since there had been some talk concerning possible trouble or disruptions during the meetings.

On March 28, 1975, [redacted] who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that the NKKKK plan several meetings during the weekend of March 28-30, 1975, which meetings will concern Klan activities and membership recruiting activities by the newly formed Klan group in Kanawaha County, West Virginia area. Source stated that Klan strategy concerning the textbook protest controversy in Charleston, West Virginia, will receive secondary consideration at these meetings.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
OF OHIO, INC. (NKKKK)

On October 8, 1964, [redacted] Secretary of State's Office, Columbus, State of Ohio, advised public records from this office indicate a charter was granted the NKKKK of Ohio on October 5, 1964, by the State of Ohio. The charter was filed under Certificate Number 10194, and the Corporation Number is 334111.

The purpose of the corporation is to operate as a realm organization within the State of Ohio and in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia. Second, to promote patriotism toward the civil government, honorable peace among men and nations, love among ourselves, liberty, justice and patriotic association for the mutual benefit of all mankind.

The incorporation papers were signed by [redacted]

the corporation trustees.

On October 23, 1964 [redacted] Corporation Counsel, State House, Secretary of State's Office, State of Ohio, advised that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Ohio, Inc.'s charter granted October 5, 1964, was revoked October 22, 1964, for the official reason that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan Organization was on the U.S. Attorney General's subversive list.

[redacted] said the actual purpose for revocation of the charter was not because the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is on the U.S. Attorney General's subversive list, but because it was felt the existence of a state granted charter would encourage the Klan to make the claim it was "state sanctioned" and, therefore, entirely legitimate.

In actuality the Ku Klux Klan and not the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan has been designated by the United States Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Federal Reserve System The Greatest Danger To Our Country And Its People

LET'S DO SOMETHING TO DESTROY THIS EVIL

By James R. Venable
Imperial Wizard of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan

The Federal Reserve Act was passed on December 23, 1913 when most congressmen were away for Christmas vacation, and was signed into law four hours later by Woodrow Wilson. The Federal Reserve Bank was founded by international banking conspirators, mostly foreigners, including officials of Kuhn, Loeb and

Co., Jacob Schiff, Goldman, Saxon, Lehman, the Warburgs, Kahns, and Rockefeller. Congressman Charles A. Lindbergh, Sr. told Congress, "This act establishes the most gigantic trust on earth... When the President signs this act the invisible government by money power will be legalized... The new law will create inflation whenever the trusts want inflation... and depressions will be SCIENTIFICALLY CREATED."

Federal Reserve is NOT owned by the U.S. government but by private individuals, and has NO RESERVE of its own. The USA does not own ONE SHARE of stock in Federal Reserve System. Federal Reserve employees are NOT on civil service, the government has no say as to its locations, and even Congress is not allowed to know its directors. This private corporation PAYS NO TAXES, NO INTEREST, AND HAS NEVER BEEN AUDITED NOR INSPECTED!

DEBT MONEY SYSTEM
The U.S. Constitution gives CONGRESS the power to issue our money (art. 1, Sec. 8). Under Federal Reserve Act, the Fed issues our money at a cost of about .0084¢ per note for the cost of printing. Then the Fed LENDS this money back to the U.S.

We are now paying interest on EVERY Federal Reserve note. A One dollar bill, etc., plainly says "Federal Reserve Note," which means that it is actually an IOU of the U.S. government to the Federal Reserve private bankers, for the face value of the note, plus interest.

Interest on the "National Debt" today is the third largest item in our national budget, exceeded only by defense and Department of Health, Education and Welfare (Social Security, Welfare, etc.). The national debt is over $495 billion, and Ford says it will probably go over $500 billion this year. Interest alone on the national debt is now $31 billion a year.

If Congress had issued interest-free currency according to the Constitution, THERE WOULD BE NO NATIONAL DEBT! Actually, we owe the money changers nothing. We have this burdensome yoke upon our necks because under an unconstitutional money system, our money is put into circulation as a debt.

CREDIT CREATED BY BOOKKEEPING ENTRY
In most instances the Fed merely credits the government account and hands the government a book of "check book currency," thereby saving the cost of printing Federal Reserve notes. In fact, 95% of all business is now transacted with "check book currency" which is CREATED BY BOOKKEEPING ENTRIES of the twelve Federal Reserve Banks and commercial banks—out of thin air, with the stroke of a pen.

On December 7, 1968, a Minnesota jury made a decision that the creation of credit by bookkeeping entry is unconstitutional.

FACTIONAL RESERVE
Checkbook currency can be created by banks with only a fraction of the money on reserve to cover the amount of the loans. For example, a bank with $50,000 can lend $1,500,000 checkbook currency. This can be re-deposited, and re-loaned over and over.

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) is a farce. If there were to be a run on banks, there would be financial catastrophe. According to author Harry Browne, the FDIC now has only $4.7 billion to cover insured bank deposits of $393.3 billion. Raising the insurance from $20,000 to $50,000 only lowers the ratio of the agency's reserves to liabilities—from bad to worse.

TAX-FREE GOVERNMENT BONDS
The money boys saw to it that interest on municipal, State, and Federal revenue bonds is tax-free.

If your community floats a $50 million bond issue, the bond is drawn up and sold to a money lender (usually in New York) who issues credit for the amount (Kuhn, Loeb, etc.). Then the community repays the principal WITH INTEREST (on the $50 million) WHICH IS TAX-FREE TO THE MONEY LENDERS!

SUBTERFUGE
Now put all this together:
1. Suppose you are the Fed. and authorize the Bureau of Engraving to print a $50,000 bill, our largest denomination, and walk out with it, leaving a tab of .0084¢ for the cost of printing.
2. Now step into the Treasury Department and buy a $50,000 interest-bearing U.S. Bond with the bill. This is the manner our Treasury finances the budget.

3. Next, deposit the bond with the Comptroller of Currency (you retain ownership of the bond and the interest is payable to you).
4. You hoard the $50,000 currency in your bank vault as reserve for the creation of $1,500,000 of checkbook currency which you can lend to member banks for making FURTHER loans and investments.

5. Suppose the bond pays 4% annual interest and matures in 30 years at which time the Fed will receive a second cash payment of $50,000 from the treasury. (Remember, by law, all Federal Reserve Notes (From $1 bill to $50,000) are

James Venable
Imperial Wizard
National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan
of America

OBLIGATIONS of the Federal Government, as are interest-bearing U.S. Bonds.

To summarize:
Treasury receives $50,000 cash. The Fed receives $50,000 from Comptroller of Currency
$50,000 from Treasury when bond matures
$60,000 tax-free interest
$3,760,000 interest on loans to member banks
$3,760,000 total—which likewise use the credit for other loans and investments.

Whenever the federal government wishes to make a loan the Treasury prints bonds for the amount of the loan, and the Fed prints Federal Reserve notes for same amount; they make an outright swap. Thus, the above procedure takes place. The government borrows their own credit and pays the money changers $2 for every $1 borrowed, plus interest.

And this was ratified and signed into law by Woodrow Wilson on December 23, 1913.

During the past 60 years the Fed has created $1 1/2 trillion indebtedness.

MONEY POWER
The same people who founded the Federal Reserve system also organized the Council on

Why America Should Not Abolish Her Guns Your Gun Is The Enemy's Target

By James Lumpkin
Aide to the Imperial Wizard of the National Ku Klux Klan
P. O. Box 466, Stone Mountain, Ga. 30083

During the month of May, 1919, the military intelligence uncovered a document in Dusseldorf, Germany, entitled "Rules for Bringing About a Revolution." This document read: "Cause the Registration of All Firearms on Some Pretext, with a View to Confiscating Them and Leaving the Population Helpless."

In World War II, the Military Intelligence uncovered gun registration lists in Germany that provided names, addresses, make of weapons, and serial numbers, the civilian owner, or possessor, were quickly arrested and all weapons confiscated. In Red China, the people had to give up all of the arms they possessed so that only the members of the Communist Party and the regular and irregular troops would be armed. In Russia, only a counter-revolutionary would ever think of arming the slaves. The Constitution of Russia nowhere ever mentions firearms. All weapons were registered and confiscated long ago, and today, aside from the military and police, only a handful of people may use, but not own, a firearm by special permission, KG 3 (Committee of State Security) and under strict police supervision.

Anti-gun laws aid the Kremlin, whether he be a traitor to his country or a common sneak thief. A criminal has no respect for any law, including gun laws, and he will always steal or "capture" a gun, or guns, if he is so inclined.

The President's Crime Commission, when it was created in this country, has recommended the enactment of state laws that would require the registration of all privately owned hand guns, rifles, and shotguns, and the enactment of a similar law by the Congress if any state failed to comply within five years. Today, in this country, under the National Firearms so-called Registration Law, all gun dealers are required, when a person buys a gun, that he or she sign a form giving his or her name and address, showing the make, serial number, etc. of the gun or pistol, whereby the government of the United States has a record of same; and in the event a resolution in this country, or war, should start, his or her gun will be picked up and surrendered to the military or perhaps to our enemy. This law further provides that any person having been convicted of a felony cannot buy a gun or pistol, and the gun dealer does not tell this to the purchaser. And today, in this country, there are thousands of people under indictment or have been convicted concerning this application, and the gun dealer never does divulge this to the buyer for the reason that he would lose the sale of guns or pistols. This law should be amended to require the gun dealer to read and explain to the purchaser that if he or she has ever been convicted of a felony he or she would not be permitted to buy a gun.

Just recently, in Georgia, the legislature attempted to pass a registration gun law whereby we would be denied the right to buy a gun unless we signed an application registering the same whereupon the government and, perhaps our enemy, would know that we own and possess a gun and what type of gun we bought. The conservative right-wing organizations were successful in getting the legislature to defeat this horrible legislation which I say would be contrary to the Constitution of the United States (which gives us the right to have and possess weapons).

The American public is now being saturated with "gray false in part" propaganda appearing in such seemingly respectable media as the Reader's Digest, CBS-TV, NBC-TV, and ABC-TV, and many of the leading newspaper editorials are trying to mislead the public and the politicians by suggesting that in order to stop crime in this country we must prohibit the sale of guns and ammunition with the exception of a few, which will cause the country to fall and our citizens to be destroyed by the enemy within. This is done for the purpose of breaking down their natural resistance to any gun legislation that encroaches upon their constitutional rights and in the hope of nullifying their pressure on their congressional representatives, as well as the legislators in the state of our union.

In the United States, annually, we have between twelve to fifteen thousand murders.

One-half of the murders are caused by hand guns, rifles and shotguns, and the other half by knives and other lethal instruments. In this country, there are approximately 75 to 100 thousand people killed annually, and approximately 2 million hospitalized by licensed drivers of registered automobiles.

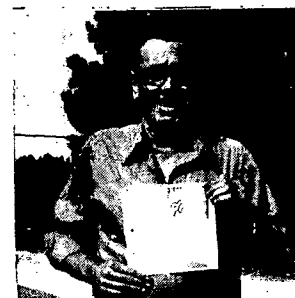

Communism has captured and destroyed country after country, and while this article is being prepared and ready to be published, the countries of Viet Nam, Cambodia, Laos, Portugal, and Spain are being attacked by the Communist Bloc, and these countries will soon fall under the Iron Curtain which means that our country will be next on the list. And if our government and its representatives, such as the Congress and Senate of the United States and the various legislators of the fifty states, should pass these gun laws, it will not be too far off for our enemy within and from without to attack and destroy our nation and turn this great country over to the Communists. To assure the success of the enemies and the traitors of our country, namely, the Communists and the Socialists, they must be "guaranteed" immunity by the registration and confiscation of privately owned weapons which might be used against them and such military forces as would remain loyal.

Nearly every state in our country has constitutional sections that specify the right of a citizen of a state to "keep and bear arms in defense of his home, person, and property. Any gun legislation enacted by the Federal Government which usurps the intent of a state constitution and the laws of a state is void. By legal definition this simply means that such a federal law does not exist and has never existed because the sovereignty of a state is superior to that of the federal government in every matter except where the state has delegated certain specific powers through a contract, called the Constitution, to one of its three agents call the Federal Government. The power to regulate or control hand guns, rifles and shot guns in the hands of citizens is not one of the powers delegated to the Federal Government by any of the states, and won't be for as long as the citizens keep telling their representatives in the congress to vote "No" on any and all gun legislations and to tell their state legislators to strengthen their state constitution if needed, to bring it in line with the above-cited and mentioned laws.

I advise every citizen to study his state constitution and to write or wire his state representative not to ever do anything to infringe upon our rights to keep and bear arms as given us under the Federal Constitution of the United States, as heretofore mentioned.

I urge each and every person in our country to remind your representative who represents your district in the United States Congress to always vote "No" on any type of gun law that would deprive your rights to keep and bear arms because it is your sole and legal way to protect your home, your property, and your family.

I urge every citizen to watch for and expose the crooked propagandists and masters of deceit who sneak into your home by way of printed words, the radio and television media which are trying to brain-wash our people that their own salvation is that gun laws must be enacted by your legislators and the congress of the United States. Do not fall for this type of propaganda.

THE GREAT TRAGEDY Which Has Struck Our Country, Our People, And The Youth of America

By James R. Venable
Imperial Wizard of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan
P.O. Box 466
Stone Mountain,
Georgia, 30083

No section of the American populace has been more completely deceived by the forces interested in keeping the truth from the people and the young American youth. Youth stands to suffer most from the enemies' control of our government which has reached every branch—our schools, our religious fields, and even our social life. The leftist dictatorship has given us much to fear for and from our young Americans. The alien-minded minority in control of the cinema, the radio, the television, and the news media, and the press has poured out a constant stream of propaganda with intent of gaining complete spiritual power over the minds of America's young people. With what success, everyone knows who has talked on their level to representative American youth from the age of twelve to twenty-nine. Their views on the future of the world have been cut out for them from New York, Hollywood, and Washington, D.C., where the Congress and Senate of the United States planned and passed laws and orders by the President and his bureaus, along with the Supreme Court of the United States, which have practically destroyed the youth of America.

Thousands upon thousands of our American youth have been led into a cynical, ultra-sophisticated way of life which regards drinking as a badge of social aptitude, which makes a fetish of sports, and which professes eroticism to be a way of life. In every educational institution of America today, and for some time past, the moral habits of American youth have sunk to the lowest depths imaginable, and to supplement this condition they have been aided by the terrible enemy, namely, marijuana and other more dangerous drugs which have reached alarming proportions and have reduced to an astonishingly high percentage of turning them into villains and zombies.

The school books and the subject matter therein have been written in a Communist and Socialistic slant to turn our youth against God and even against their own country. It cannot be denied that the Communists have worked very hard and effectively for many years towards the destruction of this country through the media of our youth. But ask yourself, "Who allowed them to go this far?" To aid this program our teaching institutions have been successfully infiltrated with teachers and professors who are indoctrinated in Communism and Socialism, and today, our schools and colleges are incubators for Communism and Socialism.

Our youth is exposed to perverted and insane art, lewd exhibitionistic dancing, and jungle music. For the serious-minded youth who is genuinely interested in the tremendous problems presently facing them, another insidious attack has been devised. Books have been written, plays have been staged, and an unending train of lecturers have mounted the platforms—all to convey to these thinking youths the same message: class war and international hatred. Magazines have been printed, sold, and

THE KU KLUX KREED

We, THE ORDER of the Knight of the Ku Klux Klan, reverentially acknowledge the majesty and supremacy of the Divine Being, and recognize the goodness and providence of the same.

WE RECOGNIZE our relation to the Government of the United States of America, the Supremacy of its Constitution, the Union of States thereunder, and the Constitutional Laws thereof, and we shall be ever devoted to the sublime principles of a pure Americanism and valiant in the defense of its ideals and institutions.

WE AVOW THE distinction between the races of mankind as same has been decreed by the Creator, and shall ever be true in the faithful maintenance of White Supremacy and will strenuously oppose any compromise thereof in any and all things.

WE APPRECIATE the intrinsic value of a real practical fraternal relationship among men of kindred thought, purpose and ideals and the infinite benefits accruable therefrom, and shall faithfully devote ourselves to the practice of an honorable Klansmanship that the life and living of each day be a constant blessing to others.

THE GREAT TRAGEDY

circulated, of base, vulgar and obscene quality of nude male and female characters of all races, with offensive sex scenes depicted therein—all done for propaganda purposes and to warp the minds of the young readers. This is a deliberate campaign to destroy Christian Americanism among our youth which can be placed directly at the door of the publishers of periodicals and books and to the lecturers who are committed to spreading Communist ideas by way of this very atmosphere which the American youth must breathe. The young person whose reasoning power has come to full development within the past fifteen years has been deprived of the benefit of coming in contact with a conservative Christian view of life. His professors are, in the main, Leftists, who are afraid to speak out for fear of losing their jobs. Most parents do not even realize the spiritual regimentation of their children because they themselves have been indoctrinated along with them. Those parents who do think otherwise are considered "Old-fashioned," are commonly referred to by the Negro race as "Uncle Toms," or are "proponents of the horse and buggy days."

The tragedy of this conception of American youth, under the banner of Atheism, Class-war and Social Degeneration is simply this: that the continuance of the economic and spiritual distress of our youth is an integral part of the revolutionary program of the same Communists forces which have seduced and indoctrinated them.

Our Presidents, since 1915, and the Congress of the United States, have caused thousands upon thousands of our youths to be sent into foreign countries and under the leadership of rank Communists, to sacrifice their precious lives for worthless causes and for worthless people; a surprisingly large number of our youth have married into the dark, brown and yellow races which has polluted the blood stream of America forever. Many thousands of these young men, and especially those who served in the Viet Nam War, were insidiously introduced to dangerous hard drugs while serving in an illegal and undeclared war. Many of these young men who became drug addicted were not given hospitalization and treatment for their addiction even by their own government while serving abroad. Upon their return to their own country, their government have not provided them with proper medication and hospitalization. Many of these young men have become distributors and pushers of these hard drugs infiltrating even our Foreign Relations (CFR), whose stated goal is world government (USA is expendable), the invisible government which they call "The establishment." This powerful body of "insiders" control our national and foreign policy from behind the scenes. David Rockefeller, Chairman of Chase Manhattan Bank, who now virtually owns the Fed, is present chairman of CFR.

CFR-money-interests have caused wars, controlled news media, and put their men as candidates on both major political parties (they couldn't lose), and created inflation and depression at will.

29 CRASH CONTRIVED

The House Hearings on Stabilization of the Purchasing Power of the Dollar disclosed evidence that the 1929 crash was PLANNED IN 1927 at a secret luncheon of Federal Reserve Board and heads of European banks.

On February 6, 1919, Montagu Norman, Governor of the Bank of England (described as "the currency dictator of the world") went to Washington to confer with Treasury Secretary Andrew Mellon. Immediately after Norman's visit the Federal Reserve Board began raising the discount rate. After 7 years of PLANNED INFLATION the bubble was being prepared to burst ON PURPOSE.

On March 9, 1929, Paul Warburg of the Federal Reserve Board tipped the "insiders" to sell via a public statement, "If orgies of unrestricted speculation are permitted to spread too far... the ultimate collapse is certain... to bring about a general depression..." (He should have known!)

William Bryan, in United States' Unresolved Monetary and Political Problems, stated, "When everything was ready, the New York financiers started calling 24-hour broker call loans... stock brokers and customers had to dump their stock on the market in order to pay the loans. This naturally collapsed the stock market and brought a banking collapse... and runs soon exhausted their coin and currency and they soon had to close..."

The public took a horrible blow, many losing everything in a SCIENTIFICALLY-ENGINEERED CRASH—but not the "insiders!"

Congressman Louis McFadden, Chairman of House Banking and Currency Committee indicated: "It (the depression) was NOT ACCIDENTAL. It was a CAREFULLY CONTRIVED OCCURRENCE... The international bankers sought to bring about a condition of despair here so that they might emerge AS THE RULES OF US ALL."

PLOT TO DESTROY THE MIDDLE CLASS

Inflation of the '20's turned into the great depression of the '30's. From FDR's "New Deal" to the current "war on poverty," the welfare-state program takes money from the pockets of those who earned it and puts it into the pockets of those who didn't. This is manifestation of the communist line as parroted by W.E.B. DuBoise: "From such according to his ability, to each according to his need." It is a communist goal to destroy the middle class and have a world government ruled by the "elite" over a "one-world" classless society, with one race—the human race."

grammar schools and progressing into our high schools and colleges which will eventually lead to the destruction of our future generation.

The tragedy for youth lies in the fact that the Communist's scheme for success has been achieved at the expense of our American youth, and the blame lies directly on the Congress and President of these United States and in the lethargy of the American public. When will we realize that the alien-minded minority who is presently in control of our country, wants this situation to continue—with its revolutionary possibilities?

The burden imposed by the ever-growing national debt is a threatening setback to our American youth. No matter how this debt is liquidated by confiscatory inflation or by being paid off dollar by dollar, it will be paid off at the expense of liberty and happiness of our present-day American youth. If all the private and corporate wealth of the nation is confiscated to pay off the national debt, what economic force remains in this country for the employment of the idle millions existing today? You can rest assured that our present day economic situation is a feather in the cap of the Red Dictatorship which worked diligently to bring our country to this point. Unless we Americans take a firm stand against the subtle infiltration in this country by outsiders, and take a firm stand against corruption in our government, our future generation will be enslaved and working not for their own welfare and happiness but will be working for the U.S. government paying them in taxes two dollars for every three dollars earned.

Today, our government owes, they say, approximately Four hundred and ninety-five billion dollars, and they say we pay Thirty-one billion dollars annually, as interest, for this indebtedness. While most of the countries of the world owe us sufficient sums of money to pay off this indebtedness and more, our government has made no effort to collect the same and permits these countries to continue to ignore their debts to us. Why?

Today, in our country, there are millions of Americans unemployed and many thousands suffering for the lack of necessities of life.

The writer of this article blames our President and the Congress of the United States and the Supreme Court of the United States for our predicament. The Congress of the United States which passed the Civil Rights Bill which was ratified by the President of the United States and was upheld by the Supreme Court of the UNITED STATES has caused every company and individual

PRIVATE ENTERPRISE VICTIMIZED.

The massive increase in deficit government spending was DESIGNED TO TAKE money from the PRIVATE sector of our economy and pump it into the PUBLIC sector where it is poured into wars and give-aways. Greater government spending means centralization of power into the hands of the Establishment insiders who run it.

Thomas Jefferson once warned "... I believe banking institutions are more dangerous to our liberties than standing armies... if the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of currency, first by inflation, then by deflation, the banks and corporations that grow up around them will deprive the people of all property until their children will wake up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered."

GOLD IMPOUNDED

On April 5, 1933, FDR issued an executive order requiring all Americans to take their gold bullion, coins, and gold-backed currency to their banks and exchange them for currency which was not redeemable in gold (worthless scraps of paper). The banks were required to deliver the gold to the Federal Reserve Bank, which stored it in vaults at Fort Knox.

This prevented gold from being used as protection against future hegemony of the Federal Reserve System. The way was open for decades of mounting inflation and centralization of power. (The "money changers in the temple" plan years in advance.)

GOLD REMOVED

In summer 1974, Dr. Peter Beter, former counsel with U.S. Export-Import Bank, reported that beginning November 14, 1973, on orders of David Rockefeller, Fort Knox gold had been taken out in the dark of night on the instruction of a 4-star general, without a receipt, and taken to Europe, and that our gold is now in the possession of International Monetary Bank.

FORT KNOW WHITEWASH

The Fort Knox inspection, 9/23/74, was unprecedented as no one except Federal Reserve officials are ever admitted there. This time congressmen and newsmen were admitted, but no expertise in gold—that would have been too dangerous!

The seal on the door had been broken and there was graffiti on the walls, indicating previous entry; and only one chamber was shown. Better claims that the "gold brick" were actually lead blocks plated with gold.

National Tattler made its own investigation and found the Fort Knox inspection to be a farce.

SIMON SAYS OUR GOLD IMPURE

Secretary of Treasury William Simon admitted in a document that there is NO DIVISIBLE GOLD IN FORT KNOW, according to a Liberty Lobby broadcast 11/9/74. Simon reportedly indicated that we have 267 million ounces of gold, but only 15% is pure gold (i.e., 39.5% pure to be marketable as gold). However, Simon allegedly indicated that all "gold" at Fort Knox is INFERIOR AND NOT MARKETABLE.

Treasury records carry 267 million ounces of pure gold. Where is it now?

in business to employ incompetent and unqualified Negroes which has practically destroyed all business in this country, and most of them have been forced into bankruptcy, and the stock in most of these companies have substantially depreciated in value and in some instances are almost worthless. This situation is comparable to the situation which has destroyed our schools, our churches, and the social life of the white race.

This very law concerning Civil Rights has caused thousands upon thousands of Black and white people to vote incompetently and has caused many cities throughout the United States to be run by the inferior race, namely, the Black people. Cleveland, Ohio, and Atlanta, Georgia, are examples, as well as Washington, D.C., the seat of our government. Law and order is practically non-existent and crime has run rampant throughout our United States.

The youth of America and many of you, have been spoiled, deluded, arrogant, brain-washed brats and know-nothings. I am sick of you. I am sick of your teachers and professors, your administrators, your counselors, your clergymen, if any, your parents, and others who have come very close to ruining an entire generation of young Americans. What have you done to make this better world and place to live in? What have you contributed?

Yes, we parents have made many mistakes, and one of the worst was the almost universal desire to see that our children didn't have to make it the hard way like we did. Yes, we the older people have made a mess of the world and our children are turning the mess into a cesspool. I know that this hard-nosed approach is poor salesmanship, and a poor way to narrow the generation gap—it's too narrow already.

Today, in our country, there are thousands upon thousands of young men in our educational field as well as on the outside, many of whom have long hair and many of whom one cannot distinguish from a female, and many of whom wear their shirt tail out, which is a disgrace to society. This appearance is contrary to the Holy Writ. In First Corinthians, Chapter 11, Verse 14, it sets forth as follows: "Doth not even nature itself teach you, if a man has long hair, it is a shame unto him?" Also, in Verse 15, it says: "If a woman have long hair it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering."

If America does not wake up and do something about all of these evils and wrongs that we have touched upon in this article, THERE WILL BE NO AMERICA.

BIG BANK BAMBOOZLE

The Federal Reserve aims to get control of all banking of the U.S. Rep. Wright Patman, Chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee, in opposition to Reserve Requirements Act of 1974, declared: "Mr. Speaker, today the Federal Reserve System announced another grab for power. This giant bureaucracy now seeks to... control directly the reserves of every bank in the nation..."

Soaring interest rates were arbitrarily set to draw investors from small banks and stock market, to take advantage of higher interest rates in short term securities. States' savings banks suffered the worst.

Superbanks hold enough stock in competing corporations to dominate entire industries. David Rockefeller's Chase Manhattan was the biggest stockholder in 20 major corporations. Chase holds controlling stock of 4 airlines, 6 railroads, and 30 firms which run the 3 major broadcasting companies. (Talk about insiders controlling the mass media!)

RIP-OFF OF THE MIDDLE CLASS

The middle income person is ripped off in nearly every walk of life, according to the author of a new book, The Screwing of the Average Man, who appeared recently on the Johnny Carson show. Two hundred billion dollars is sitting in checking accounts in banks without drawing a cent, according to the author. The money changers saw to it that the law forbids interest on checking accounts.

Corporations are required to withhold tax from employees and deposit it in Federal Reserve banks, where it cannot draw one cent interest for the business or employees, but can be used as reserve for loans on which the banks draw interest.

INCOME TAX INEQUITIES

The graduated income tax Amendment was introduced in 1913 by Nelson Aldrich, uncle of Nelson Rockefeller.

Loopholes are built into the tax code so that the super rich can avoid taxes, while ripping off the middle income taxpayer. Some loopholes were created to benefit single individuals.

The author of The Screwing of the Average Man said Newspapers reported that Nelson Rockefeller did not pay any taxes in 1970—someone had to pay his part.

LOOPHOLES COST THE AVERAGE TAXPAYER AN ESTIMATED $2000 PER YEAR.

DISCRIMINATORY TAX LOOPHOLES

Among the many loopholes that favor the super rich, are high tax-exempt foundations which originated to avoid taxes. (Ford Foundation, Rockefeller Foundation, Rockefeller Brothers, etc.) Their founders invest vast wealth in them tax-free, in most cases to propagate socialism.

Another, significant loophole is, tax-free interest on municipal, state or federal revenue bonds. While pushing for big spending programs, the money changers do not pay one cent tax on the enormous interest received from the millions of dollars loaned annually for government bonds.

These and many other loopholes favor the wealthy. In his book The Rich and Super Rich, Ferdinand Lundberg cites the case of a multimillionaire who had an income one year of over $19 million from tax exempt securities on which he paid no tax, while his chauffeur paid paid hundreds of dollars in income tax.

In another type of discrimination, a person age 60 or over drawing a PENSION FROM PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT, under certain conditions can get retirement income credit as a direct credit against his tax (as opposed to taxable income). However, a person drawing a PENSION FROM PRIVATE ENTERPRISE in the same amount cannot get this credit!

The only fair taxation would be to treat every one alike.

IT IS AN INEQUITABLE TAX SYSTEM WHEREBY ONE GETS TAX BREAKS IF HE DISCOVERS THEM!

SOCIAL SECURITY RIP-OFF

Social Security is an even worse rip-off than income tax! Working people support the retired. At present two workers support one elderly; by the year 2030 one will support one.

It is double taxation on the employer. Those with lowest income are hit hardest, as there is a ceiling. Retirees with least investment income and need most to work, are limited on wages they can earn.

For better retirement programs could have been worked out by individuals if the government had not taken their money. Now they must depend on the government—it was planned that way.

Social Security is broke. With no new workers, taxes, beneficiaries or inflation over the next 75 years, social insecurity is now $2-4 trillion dollars in the hole on a projected basis.

STAGFLATION

Step by step the American dollar is being destroyed by "stagflation" (staged inflation). "Just as the Federal Reserve had a large hand in the disaster of the early '30's" stated the Wall Street Journal 9/3/74, "so has it been responsible for the inflationary crisis of 1974 by permitting excessive expansion of the money supply..."

The agency responsible for increasing the money in circulation is the Federal Reserve! Government presses are printing money 24 hours a day trying to keep up with demand.

The fact is, this money, without gold backing, is completely worthless scraps of paper. For over 40 years there has been no gold to support American currency; and for over 10 years there has been no silver backing. Cornering the gold market made it impossible to back money with gold.

Liquidity crisis Liquidity crisis is having insufficient funds to meet obligations. Due to the fractional reserve practice, and demonetization of gold (gold not supported by gold nor anything else).

THE UNITED NATIONS

The Monster That Has Destroyed Our Nation, Our Constitution, Our Courts, Our Schools, Our Churches, Our Free Enterprises

By John Howard
Grand Dragon of South Carolina National
Knights of the Ku Klux Klan

The United Nations was permitted to set up its operations in our country rather than in a Communist country. Its purpose and design was to destroy our nation, our Constitution, our courts, our schools, our churches, and all free enterprises. Our Congress and our President of the United States of America who permitted this hydro-headed monster to operate in this country are responsible for the destruction and the eventual over-throw of the United States Government, and every person who participated with them should be tried for treason.

Standing high over the multitude of internal subverters, towering even above the government of the United States, and reigning supreme as tyrant-lord-and-master of all humanity, is the United Nations organization, with headquarters in New York City from where all the plans, orders, and directives calling for the corruption of our American youth and the destruction of our Christian-American empire.

The United Nations is an instrument conceived in the Pits of Hell and born of those enemies of Christianity and human freedom. The name "United Nations" was first used by Franklin Delano Roosevelt in 1941. Announcement of the proposed U.N. came from Moscow in 1943. Hull, Eden and Molotov had agreed upon a post-war international organization between Russia, England, China, and the United States as the four policemen for world security. France was sometimes mentioned to include a five-power pact. A series of conferences began. By July 1944, there was already a plan to fill the Jew-baggy of gold, a world bank. High spots of planning the U.N. occurred in the fall of 1944 at Dunbarton Oaks (an estate near Washington, D.C.) and Yalta, in February 1945, an Atlantic Charter in 1945 where Roosevelt and Churchill bartered away the freedom of the Christian nations to Jew-Communist Stalin.

Uncovering the founding fathers of the U.N. Charter one writes a "WHO'S WHO" of organized spy rings, treason, and subversion in the United States. Three top plotters were: (1) Alger Hiss, a member of the Soviet spy ring, approved by "good old Joe Stalin" who was the author of the first draft of the U.N. Charter. His became the first General-Secretary and Chief Executive Officer of the U.N. Under Hiss's influence the Dunbarton Oaks Conference proposed a "Security Council" with no voting procedure at that time. It was later resolved in favor of the Communists. At all times, Hiss remained in contact with the Jew, Harry Dexter White, who conceived and operated the U.N. monetary and financial conference held at Bretton Woods, New Hampshire, in July 1944. Hiss was the most influential adviser to Roosevelt at the Yalta Conference. Hiss organized the San Francisco Conference and secretly selected most of the U.N. secretarial staff. Hiss recommended 500 people for these sensitive area jobs; (2) Leo Pavlosky, a Russian-Jew (architect), of the U.N. Charter copied it from the Jew-Communist Soviet institution. Pavlosky came into our State Department, and immediately issued a memo boldly stating he intended his office to be used to devise means of limitation of national sovereignty; (3) Phillip C. Jessup, a Rothschild pawn, left over from the infamous Pacific Relations.

Roosevelt died mysteriously in the spring of 1945 and though he had set the San Francisco

JOHN HOWARD

U.N. conference date, he was gone when 46 nations signed the deadly U.N. Charter in June 1945. Masonic Harry Truman had succeeded Roosevelt to the Presidency of the United States. Truman was putty in the hands of the Jews. The record of American Soviet agents working for the subversive U.N. cause is a grimy one. A 1950 U.S. State Department publication "Post-War Foreign Policy Preparation, 1939-45," described in detail the policies and documents leading up to the creation of the U.N. and named the people who shaped these policies. The publication and other official records disclosed the following men were key government figures in U.N. planning within the United States and Treasury Department: Alger Hiss, Harry Dexter White, V. Frank Coe, Dean Atkinson, Silvermaster, Harold Glasser, Victor Perlo, Irving Kaplan, Solomon Adler, Abraham George Silverman, William I. Ullman, and William H. Taylor. With the exception of Atkinson, all of these men have since been identified in sworn testimony, as secret Communist agents. There were 74 Council on Foreign Relations members in the American delegation to the U.N. Conference at San Francisco in 1945. When the U.N. officially came into existence. The U.S. State Department "Report to the President on the Results of the San Francisco Conference" (publication 2349) by Secretary of State, Edward R. Stettinius, stated: "With the outbreak of war in Europe it was clear that the United States would be confronted, after the war, with new and exceptional problems." Accordingly, a committee on post-war problems was set up before the end of 1939, two years before Americans knew our nation would be involved in World War II, at the suggestion of the CFR. This group created the basic structure of the U.N. and the post-war policies which lost free people to the Communist Bloc at the average rate of about 100,000,000 per year for the first seven years after the war. Internationally, the CFR made up mostly, if not all, by Jews and Masons, is linked with the secret controlled clique through the Bilderbergers, the Pugwash Conference, and the other key CFR members are interlocked with the international bankers through various associations, and since V-2 it touches into the Vatican via certain Judaco-Christian Conference. Among the CFR members at the U.N. Conference in 1945, were Alger Hiss (convicted Communist spy), Harry Dexter White (Soviet Agent), Owens Lattimore, described by a Congressional Committee as a "conscious, articulate instrument of the Soviet International Conspiracy," and Nelson Rockefeller.

The connection of so many people with Jew-Communism could hardly have been unknown to Masonic Harry Truman who had ridiculed as a "red herring" the effort of loyal Americans to protect our country from the presence of Communist spies. Masonic Harry had no qualms about signing the U.N. Treaty and entrenching Jew-Communist influence inside the United States, the same man who loved to say he was a "citizen of the world," the same man who stayed up until midnight so he could be the first to recognize the Jew take-over of the Holy Land, the final seal of approval to the U.N. Treaty ratification by the United States Senate, was given in July 28, 1945 by a vote of 89 in favor with 2 against. The only two senators who voted against this monster were Honorable William Langer and Senator H. Shipstead of Minnesota.

Americans in all walks of life are at a loss to explain what has gone wrong in our grand country in the last thirty years. They witnessed the administration of our government, Federal and State, acting contrary to the spirit and letter of our Constitution and performing acts offensive to our Christian religious principles and the American ideal, but can't understand why.

They are puzzled when their Christian American rights are denied to them, but can find no apparent reason.

They see the medical and professions and businessmen of America all deserting American ideals and Christian principles to support collectivism and socialism and are shocked. They see their personal freedom restricted more and more with every new law, but can find no plausible explanation. They see more and more Jews appointed as heads of our governmental agencies, but are never told why. They see themselves coerced into tolerance for the anti-social, immoral, and deviancy of others, but the answer eludes them. They see their schools forced to abandoned Christian values and orders to stop offering prayers, reading of the Bible or singing hymns to Almighty God, but don't know why this has happened. They see their children used as a wedge between the child and his parents, and wonder why. They see their children forcibly bused away from the neighborhood school of his choice and hauled miles away to a school in a different and undesirable neighborhood, neither the child nor his parents approve, but can find neither rhyme nor reason for this tyranny. They see their children forced to read books saturated with an unAmerican and unChristian views, but do not know the purpose. They see their President and Vice President forced out of office and their country saddled with replacements not the free choice of the people, and are distressed at the undemocratic turn of events. They see our thriving country forced to a grinding halt by planned shortage and cut-backs, but people don't know why. They see more highway construction while private transportation is opposed in favor of public, but people can't understand why. They see all this and much more with nobody telling them why. Why is it happening in our country? Yet, there is an answer, an explanation, a reason, a basic, a purpose for all that has gone wrong in our American way of life. IT IS THE UNITED NATIONS TREATY!

ing of intrinsic value, we are threatened with a liquidity crisis. Failure of one big bank could start runs on banks which could collapse the economy.

REPORTING OF AMERICAN CREDIT, TECHNOLOGY AND JOBS

On May 22, 1973, wire services announced that David Rockefeller, Chairman of Chase Manhattan Bank and Council on Foreign Relations, had just opened the first American banking office in the USSR in over 50 years.

Chase signed the first major credit arrangement between a private international bank and the Soviet Union—an $86 million deal to finance the Kama River truck foundry, 500 miles east of Moscow, largest truck factory in the world (transferring U.S. funds, jobs and technology to build up the economy of an avowed enemy).

David was just back from opening financial doors to China, draining American-generated credit into foreign lands.

In May 1974 the tax-supported Export-Import Bank granted its largest credit over to the Soviet Union, a $180 million low-interest loan to help finance a mammoth fertilizer manufacturing complex—FIRST PAYMENT DUE IN 16½ YEARS! In addition, Export-Import Bank reported that the loan would be matched by banks in the U.S. to aid Soviets in buying up fertilizer plants, chemical storage facilities, tank cars, and a 1200-mile pipeline to the Black Sea. That is $360 million in American credits that will be UNAVAILABLE TO U.S. INDUSTRY, while looking our industrial capacity.

TIP

On August 5, 1974 (3 days before Nixon was forced to resign and 15 days before Nelson Rockefeller was nominated Vice President), David Rockefeller was quoted in UPI release as saying, "The American economic situation is so uncertain that one shouldn't discard the possibility of a panic." (He should know!)

Was this the tip to insiders such as that given by Paul Warburg of the Federal Reserve on March 9, 1929? When the crunch comes he can say, "I warned you!"

OUR PRESENT PLIGHT

On November 9, 1974, in an Atlanta speech, Dr. Peter Beter, whose predictions have been accurate thus far, said that the world-wide signal for "insiders" to get ready for the crunch, would be that gold would hit $180 an ounce and stay there 10-15 days. The following week gold hit over $180 and stayed there over two weeks.

Beter said the depression would hit shortly after the first of 1975, PLANNED to last 1½ years. Object: to collapse America and destroy the middle class.

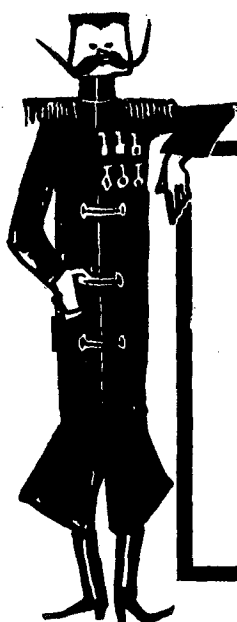

Dr. Beter, former counsel with Export-Import Bank, said that "insiders" would allow some gold to be brought back to be sold to the people IN AN ANTICIPATED $6 BILLION WINDFALL.

A REMINDER!

If you feel you are too busy to take an interest in government . . . feel that getting mixed up in politics is beneath your dignity or bad for business . . . then, at least take time for one thing:

Teach your children to count in Russian rubles . . . they'll need to with the inheritance you're leaving them!

Launching An Offensive Campaign To Save Our Once Proud Nation

By Dale Reusch
Grand Dragon of the State of Ohio National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc.
P. O. Box 248
Lodi, Ohio 44254

Greetings, Fellow Americans:
Most likely you have read, in recent months, articles in regard to the Klan Presidential Candidate for 1976. The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan must launch an offensive campaign to establish a major party in the United States of America. Enemies of this country have almost destroyed our Christian way of life, our Constitution, and our Bill of Rights.

Now, they are destroying our white race by mongrelizing and polluting the blood stream of our white womanhood. We, the Klan, stand ready to defend our country and to fight the Jewish Communist aggression that has invaded our government, our institutions of learning, and our churches. We must be ready by 1976 to stand up for the preservation of the heritage which was given to all of us by our great forefathers in 1776. Now, 200 years later, the greatest disaster ever known in American history is about to take place. We, the people of the United States of America face great enslavement and bondage of all men and women.

I, as a candidate for President of the United States, if nominated as your servant, will do my utmost to defend your Constitutional rights and redeem our Nation.

N.O.W. and THE E.R.A. BILL
The State of Georgia recently defeated the E.R.A. (Equal Rights Amendment) in the Georgia General Assembly. The Georgia branch of N.O.W. (National Organization for Women) which has a local chapter here in Ohio, conceded the fight to ratify E.R.A. saying "it is probably over in Georgia."

In a recent statement, the Atlanta newspapers quoted the N.O.W. as saying, "The Georgia Senate has joined with the John Birch Society, the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, the American Communist Party, and a few small groups, formed solely to oppose equal rights for women and men." If the N.O.W. did make the statement that the American Communist Party opposes the E.R.A., then the N.O.W. either doesn't know what they are talking about or they are deliberately falsifying facts because the American Communist Party is all out for the E.R.A. This can easily be proven by reading one of the official Communist papers such as "The Daily World." Communists in this country think the same way as our Women "Libbers" do; both of them are for Equal Rights.

The Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, which is a Christian Organization, is being deliberately linked with the Anti-Christ, Jewish American Community Party by the women "Libbers." We in the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, feel that women are not equal to men—we feel that our women are more than equal to men, so, therefore, we give women a more exalted and esteemed place in our society than do the Communists and Women Libbers.

It is interesting to note that State Representative, 55th District of Ohio, Robert A. Nader, voted in favor of this Women's Lib Law which actually will take many rights and privileges away from our women if it is ratified by the necessary 38 states.

"Wake Up, White Americans"

By
Jack Mathis

To all white, Christian Americans who might be interested in the welfare of themselves, their children, and grandchildren:

I would like to try and explain to you the purpose behind the film "The F.B.I. versus Terror." This picture was financed by Jewish people and shown on a Jewish-controlled network for the sole purpose of discouraging white people from joining the Klan.

This film was not representative of all of the klansmen and klanswomen of the whole United States. It was only representing one small organization in Mississippi which was a club organized by one man and was in no way connected to the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan. Perhaps you say to yourself "What's the difference? A Ku Klux is a Ku Klux." But I would like to try and explain a few things about the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan that might change white people's way of thinking.

This picture "The F.B.I. versus Terror" tried to make the public believe that klansmen were a bunch of idiots, always burning, killing, and beating. But that is not the true story.

The re-birth of the Klan in 1915 on top of Stone Mountain, Georgia, brought about the organization of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan — a non-violent organization.

The Blacks have their NAACP, SCLC and the Corps, just to name a few, but do you see movies about them or hear about any of their violence lately? Oh, but the Blacks are marching around capitals, down city streets, and picketing for higher welfare checks because they say that they can't make it on the money they get each month — while we go to work and pay taxes each week so that they can lay at home and drive big fancy cars, and receive their welfare checks every week. Blacks and whites and foreigners alike all have the chance to the same job, but statistics have proven that there are fewer whites on welfare.

We are proud to be native-born Americans. We are proud of our forefathers who gave up their lives so that we would be able to live in freedom; to be free to worship as we please; and to live as we please in a free country. We owe no allegiance to any foreign nation for our peace and prosperity, for our equality, for our safe home, for our children's educational advantages, or for our liberty.

I, for one, am proud of our flag and all that it represents. Yet, there are those who, for a mess of pottage, would sell their birthright and see this flag torn from its sockets and trampled upon. The National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan respect other flags but bow to none but Old Glory, and pledge themselves to see that it shall always flow supreme, conscious of the fact that devotion to Deity, to obey and uphold the law and Constitution of our country is necessary. Surely the blood of kings and potentates could be no more royal than our forefathers.

Our forefathers were the pilgrims — Boone, Washington, Franklin, Lincoln, and Lee — just to name a few. I am sure that every one of them would have given up their lives to keep America free, and some of them did. Some American people sit back in their air conditioned homes and watch T.V. and say "Well, if foreigners want to come to America, so what? America's a big prosperous country, why should we care?" I'll tell you why. Because, oddly enough, when these immigrants become citizens, many join Marxist, anti-American organizations which radically want to change America. Most are vehemently anti-white. They call us "Anglos" or "Hunkies" as a derogatory slur. If they hate this country and white Americans why don't they remain in their own countries. If we are so bigoted and prejudiced and they are so discriminated against, then, why are they not fighting to get out of America and return to their own countries. They never had it so good, that's why! They are jealous of what the white man has been able to retain for his own kind.

When they speak of socialism and Redistribution of the wealth they mean to take from us and give nothing in return. Marxism means the leveling of the productive white man and woman down to the depths of the non-working, welfare-receiving Blacks. If you will listen to the news broadcasts and to your own neighbors you'll see that they have almost succeeded in doing just that. Why, at a time when white Americans have trouble finding work in order to provide for our children, are these foreigners allowed to pour into the United States in groups of hundreds and thousands?

Our organization feels that America should be for Americans. You have never seen a Klansman tear our flag from its pole and trample and burn it. You have never heard a Klansman say that he is not proud of his country. We are also proud to be white. That is why we call ourselves a white Christian organization and we want to stay white. But how can we when our children have to go to school with them and eat and play with them, so, then why shouldn't they marry them. Some people think that's okay, too. But not Klansmen. We don't want a mongrel race even though that is what the Communists are striving for. We want our children, grandchildren, and all the future generations of our children to be proud of us and to be proud that we thought enough of their future to work for our beliefs and keep ourselves truly white in order that they also might be white, proud Americans.

Thomas Jefferson praised the work and cause of the Klan. Abraham Lincoln was assassinated because he wanted to separate the races of Black and white because there was too broad a difference between the races and he knew the end result would be a mongrel race.

COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

By Phillip W. Gilmer
Grand Kliff of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan
P. O. Box 466,
Stone Mountain, Ga.,
30083

I would like to talk to the readers of this newspaper about the Council on Foreign Relations.

To this day the American people do not know how it was formed, why it was formed, and who formed it, and they are unable to see through it to reveal its true identity and purpose.

When I look at the history of this Council, its people, its actions, it is hard for me to believe that it is nothing but a part of the Communist World Government Scheme. When you examine them I am sure that you will agree.

The Council on Foreign Relations never amounted to much until 1927 when the Rockefeller started their various foundations pouring money into it. Other tax-free foundations that poured money into it were the Ford's and Carnegie's Foundations.

In 1929, mainly with Rockefeller backing, they acquired their present headquarters, the Harold Pratt House, 58 East 68th Street, New York, New York.

Among the list of forefathers of the Council on Foreign Relations are none other than the World International Bankers, such as J. P. Morgan, John D. Rockefeller, Paul Warburg, Otto Kahn and Jacob Schiff. (By the way, these same men engineered and established the Federal Reserve System which is breaking our government to this day. It is not owned by our government.) They are also responsible for the Marxist graduated income tax which they avoided for themselves by creating their own tax-free foundations.

Since the administration of Franklin D. Roosevelt, the Council on Foreign Relations has managed to have members slotted into key policy making positions, which accounts for both Henry Kissinger and the liberals in both parties. Two other key inside men in the government are Hubert Humphrey and Birch Bayh. (Bayh is one of the big pushers of gun control.)

If you will review the Nixon administration you will see that they control the Council on Foreign Relations. Through the Communist-accommodating Council on Foreign Relations the Nixon Administration was able to:

1. Increase trade with the Communists.
2. Disarmament without inspection.
3. Encourage Detente with the Soviet Union and Red China.

On April 28, 1972, Congressman John R. Harick declared, "The Council on Foreign Relations is the establishment. Not only does it have influence and power in key decision making positions at the highest levels of government, to apply pressure from above, but it also finances and uses individuals and groups to bring pressure from below to justify the high level decisions for converting the United States from a sovereign Constitutional Republic into a servile member state of the 'One World Dictatorship.'"

In February 1974, the "American Opinion" stated that "Years ago Nelson Rockefeller demanded and received the privilege of naming his own men on top administrative posts on all important Republican Committees... including the vital national senatorial, congressional and policy committees. His demand for top patronage was reluctantly agreed to, after he threatened to cut off all Rockefeller and Rockefeller controlled financial contributions. The effect on the Republican Party has been all too clear."

It was Nelson Rockefeller who insisted that Henry Kissinger become the Nixon Administration's right-hand man for foreign policies. (From 1956 to 1958 Kissinger was employed by the Rockefeller brothers as Director of Special Studies.)

Paul Scott stated that Western European leaders are becoming convinced that "the Nixon Administration is primarily interested in developing a new international order in close relationship with the Russians."

During the Nixon Administration, the fact of the signing of 67 bilateral United States-Soviet agreements, that range from political consultation to joint space exploration, is clear evidence that the Nixon-Kissinger policies put the Communist Russians before proven allies.

Mr. Scott also stated that Kissinger had a highly unusual and secretive method of dealing with top Soviet leaders.

Mr. Scott revealed, on April 10, 1974, that "During his recent visit to the Soviet Union, Kissinger cut himself off from United States military and diplomatic personnel in the U. S. Embassy in Moscow and utilized the Soviet Communication System for transmitting messages back to the President. Proposals handed Kissinger by Soviet leaders were sent to the White House via Kremlin radio to the Soviet Embassy in Washington and then hand carried to the President or Kissinger's staff by Russian diplomatic personnel, rather than through the United States Communication System of the Defense and State Departments."

Scott went on to say that during private conversations with members of Congress, the presidential military advisers have complained that Soviet Ambassador, Anatoly F. Dobrynin, has a closer relationship with Secretary of State Kissinger than they do.

In the past two years, Kissinger has flown to Moscow on the President's special Air Force plane four times. All four times he was accompanied by Dobrynin, and has never invited one of the joint chiefs of staff to accompany him.

Can't you see through their foreign-born Secretary of State?

Kissinger, who is on the Council on Foreign Relations, supports the International Order of World Rule. A statement that has appeared in Kissinger's writings is as follows, "We must construct an international order. Institutions based on present concepts of national sovereignty are not enough."

In Mr. Scott's column in November, 1973, he referred to a speech made by Council on Foreign Relations member, Richard N. Gardner, professor of Law and International Organization at Columbia University. Gardner stated that, "Our best hope for the foreseeable future seems to be not in building up a few ambitious central institutions... but rather in much more decentralized... and fragmented process of inventing or adapting institutions of limited jurisdiction and selected membership to deal with specific problems."

"In short, we are likely to do better by building our House of World Order from the bottom up rather than from the top down."

Gardner termed his new strategy "an end run around National Sovereignty, eroding it piece by piece." He predicted that such an approach is likely to get us to World Order faster than the old fashion frontal assault.

He then went on to say, "the hopeful aspect of the present situation is that even as nations resist appeals for world government, and surrender of sovereignty, technological, economical and political interest are forcing them to establish more and more far ranging institutions to manage their mutual independence."

However, this speech received very little publicity, obviously to keep the American people from becoming knowledgeable about its contents.

In June, 1972, "American Opinion" magazine, Gary Allen briefly discussed Council on Foreign Relations' member James Warburg, whose international banking family was principally responsible for the creation of the Federal Reserve System that controls our money and is breaking our government. Also, they financed Lenin and Trotsky from his New York and Frankfurt Banks.

On February 17, 1950, Warburg, speaking to a committee of the United States Senate, stated that, "We shall have world government whether or not you like it, by conquest or consent."

The June, 1972 issue of the "American Opinion" magazine made this observation about the World-Government Promoting Council on Foreign Relations:

Originally the Council was controlled by a consortium of Morgan partners and agents, but over the years Morgan's influence has receded and the Rockefeller family has gained mastery of the organization.

"The Council on Foreign Relations is often facetiously referred to these days as the 'Rockefeller Foreign Office' but it is strictly kidding on the square."

What do you think? Is it just kidding or are the hidden facts starting to show through?

The Chairman of the Board of The Council on Foreign Relations is David Rockefeller, who also heads the Chase Manhattan Bank, which by 1973 had accumulated and admitted 39 billion dollars in assets. This does not include a major portion of their business carried on through affiliated banks overseas, a figure not consolidated on their balance sheets. Chase Manhattan has 28 foreign branches of its own plus a globe encircling string of 50,000 correspondent banking offices. The mind boggles at such financial power.

Allen's article stated that congressional sources had revealed that Chase Manhattan, through its combined trust departments, holds enough stock in its 55 major corporations in the United States to exercise some measure of control.

Today, David Rockefeller is a money magnate wielding unprecedented power, expanding or inhibiting the economies of whole nations by his day to day decisions. The Power of the Rockefellers, one of their biographers says, crosses all borders, can make or destroy governments, start and stop wars and profoundly influence everyone's life, including yours.

On June 26, 1968, the Associated Press released this report: "The New York Governor Nelson Rockefeller said as President he would work toward international creation of a New World Order based on east and west cooperation instead of conflict."

The free American people should thank Almighty God that he was not elected. However, their goal to have world rule still goes full speed ahead, as they were able to insert into the top slot, in the Nixon administration, the most highly trained inside man they have (Henry Kissinger) to help achieve their selfish world rule by means of changing, making and carrying out our United States foreign policies. Kissinger's relationship with the Soviets is closer than anyone's in our government. Why do you think this is so? Is he one of us or one of them?

The Council on Foreign Relations has instigated plans that will cost the taxpayers fortunes and at the same time protect the bankers that are affiliated or members of the Council on Foreign Relations from losing any money at all.

The following is just such an example. The World Government Promoters believe that the Soviet economy should be elevated to a point whereby it can be meshed into the United States economy. This will be accomplished by the transfer to the Soviet Union of United States technological know-how and capital. Our government is undergoing just such a transfer through the United States Export-Import Bank.

The Export-Import Bank was started in 1934 by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Congress made it an independent government agency in 1945. It was never allowed to finance any Communist countries until 1971, when it was passed by the president authorizing it to extend credits and guarantees to the Soviet Union, Romania, and Poland.

By July 9, 1974, the Export-Import Bank had made loans to the Soviet Union totaling about five million dollars.

The bank's stocks, borrowing, and transactional authority are financed by American taxpayers.

Not only does the Export-Import Bank advance about half the money needed for Soviet projects, but it also obligates the United States taxpayers by guaranteeing the commercial banks (which the Export-Import Bank borrows from) reimbursement against any loss, if the Soviets default. In this type of under the table dealing international banking institutions like Chase can't lose. But what about the taxpayers?

The Soviets to this day owe us about $760,000,000 and they say they will not pay, and, at a loss, we the taxpayers will have to pay these international bankers. Now, can you see how they, at no loss to themselves, are draining the taxpayers?

On July 11, 1974, the Red Line Newsletter revealed the "Export-Import Bank's first big loan went to build the Soviet Kama River Truck Complex, the largest in the world. The bank loaned the Kremlin $86,420,000.00... coming to about 45 per cent of the total project cost at 6 per cent interest.

To match the U.S. Export-Import Bank loan for the Kama River plant, the Rockefeller's Chase Manhattan Bank also loaned the same amount to be repaid at a higher interest rate than the Soviets will be required to pay the taxpayers supported Export-Import Bank. But how much more interest, is a banking secret. Chase Manhattan will be paid off including interest before one dime is repaid to the Export-Import Bank.

On May 5, 1974, Congressman John D. Conlan asked, "Why should the United States subsidize Russia's build-up of its own strategic raw material capability when great efforts are needed at home to fill America's own gaping deficiencies of raw materials." He went on to point out that the Export-Import Bank had made loans to finance the Soviets with money to enable them to export nuclear weapons, build plants, jet aircraft, and military equipment, as well as machine tools and computer technology that can be used for military purposes.

Conlan then stated, "It is obvious to anyone that this head long rush by American corporations to provide the fruits of United States brain power to the Soviet Union is against all our best national interest."

The fact that Russian built trucks and tanks built to American designs and powered by American diesel engines, when supplied by the Soviets to the North Vietnamese Army for use against us on the battlefield should be reason enough to stop Export-Import Bank credit.

On January 19, 1974, a Washington-based weekly reported that Peter Flanagan, who is a member of the Communist-Accommodating Council on Foreign Relations, has paid a visit to Georgia Congressman Benjamin Blackburn to try and persuade him to support a United States effort to help explore and develop natural gas and oil deposits in the Soviet Union.

He then told the Georgia Congressman that "if we cannot trust the Arabs we should have to get fuel from a more reliable source, the Soviet Union." Mr. Blackburn in turn told him that "that kind of reasoning was crazy."

The loan for such a project is estimated at ten billion dollars. It would be 1980 before the American taxpayers would receive one drop of oil, if any is to be found. We know that from past dealings with the Soviets that they cannot be trusted.

Ask yourself this: Can we trust these Communists to let us search, drill, and export fuel out of their country?

After former President Nixon tells us we should not depend on the Jew-hating Arabs for oil, the Nixon-Kissinger Jewish Administration tells us that we should depend on the Communists for Siberian gas.

A source of the Columbia Office of the FBI who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on April 3, 1975, that public rallies of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (See appendix for characterizations) were scheduled to be held on the evening of March 28-29, 1975, at Charleston, West Virginia. The rallies were organized by [REDACTED] of Ohio, with the help of [REDACTED] the Charleston, West Virginia, Klavern. Both rallies were rained out because of unusually heavy rains. Some music was played but no attempt was made to use the public address systems. There were approximately 35 Klansmen present both nights but no spectators. Present for the rally on both nights were [REDACTED] of Baltimore, Maryland, [REDACTED] of Ohio, [REDACTED] of South Carolina, and [REDACTED] from Toronto, Canada. It was apparent that [REDACTED] did not have a Klan group and it was not known who brought him to West Virginia. [REDACTED] did a lot of talking about Jews and was obviously anti-semitic. [REDACTED] claimed to have some type of extremist group in Toronto whose members wear green berets. He also claimed to be in touch with a foreign guerilla group and hoped to meet with their representatives in Canada during the coming summer. He did not furnish the name of the group or say why he wanted to meet with its representatives.

As stated in LHM, this Imperial Board meeting involved more the settling of squabbles than the actual setting of any policy. It appears that VENABLE and both are disgusted with and his antics and will seek to expel him from the organization.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

A source, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that on Saturday and Sunday, April 19 and 20, 1975, an Imperial Board meeting of the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) (See Appendix) was held at the Imperial Palace at Stone Mountain, Georgia.

MEMBER OF SUBJECT ORGANIZATION

The first order of business was the Klan trial of the [redacted] of Elkhart, Indiana. [redacted] was charged with [redacted]. He was convicted of the charge, removed as [redacted] from the State of Indiana, and suspended from the Klan for one year.

The next order of business was the resolving of a dispute between [redacted] of Ohio, and [redacted] of the newly-formed Klan group in West Virginia. [redacted] have been in a squabble for power in West Virginia. [redacted] claimed to have 65 members signed up whereas [redacted] claimed 42. However, when records were checked they reflected that, in fact, they had only nine members signed up. Imperial Wizard, James R. Venable, and [redacted] are both disgusted with [redacted] and gave him a 45-day suspension. [redacted] indicated that at the expiration of the suspension, he wants to throw [redacted] out of the Klan.

There were no other matters of importance discussed nor policy changes made during these two days of meetings. No mention at all was made of [redacted] running for President of the United States in 1976.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency

Source whose identity is concealed herein has furnished reliable information in the past except where otherwise noted.

SHIP OF JAMES R. VENERABLE.

SOURCE FURTHER ADVISED THAT THE SCHEDULED RALLY AT WHICHES CREEK, ^{WEST} VIRGINIA, ON MAY 3, 1975, WAS POSTPONED
BECAUSE OF THE WEATHER, AND THAT ANOTHER RALLY IS BEING SCHEDULED FOR OAK HILL, ^{WEST} VIRGINIA ON MAY 17, 1975, FOLLOWING THE PRELIMINARY HEARING.

SOURCE STATED THAT THERE WERE NO INCIDENTS IN ^{WEST} VIRGINIA
OVER THE PAST WEEKEND. AN INITIATION CEREMONY WAS HELD ON MAY 4, 1975, AT CABIN CREEK, ^{WEST} VIRGINIA, IN WHICH 8-10 PEOPLE WERE SWORN INTO THE KLAN AND THIS WAS FOLLOWED BY A BRIEF KLAN MEETING.

SOURCE ALSO ADVISED THAT [] PLANS TO TRAVEL TO

Reurairtel and LHM 5/7/75.

Referenced LHM reported on NKKKK rallies held on 5/3 and 4/75 at Greenville, South Carolina. Although speakers at these rallies included the NKKKK Grand Dragons of Georgia and South Carolina, no information concerning any of the speeches was set forth, and the only comment concerning them was "No inflammatory statements were made."

In order that FBIHQ and the Department can more accurately follow the current direction and policies of the NKKKK and other white hate groups, it is necessary that sufficient information concerning the actual content of pertinent speeches by the leaders and members be set forth. While it is acceptable to synopsise such speeches, sufficient data should be reported in a positive manner to give an overall picture of what was said.

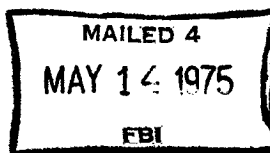

Insure that all appropriate personnel are aware of the above and the future communications suitable for dissemination comply with the above.

ReCVairtel and LHM 5/2/75.

Referenced LHM furnished details of a rally held 4/26/75 in Gamber, Maryland, which was attended by 75-90 persons, 25 to 30 of whom were wearing klan robes. In order for FBIHQ and the Department to be fully aware of extent to which National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) is adhering to its ideology and to more readily assess its activities, it is desired that in future, when reporting activities such as rallies where there are speeches, you should furnish specifics as to what was said.

Regarding the rally mentioned above submit supplemental LHM furnishing specifics as to speeches made.

In view of the present conflict among members of the NKKKK in West Virginia, in which [redacted] Ohio NKKKK is involved, and in view of his previously alleged interest in running for president of the United States, such details should be submitted in future reporting of activities of NKKKK and [redacted]

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN
REALM OF OHIO

On April 30, 1975, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that a National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK), (see appendix), rally was held at Gamber, Maryland on April 26, 1975, under the leadership of Maryland [redacted]. The rally was held on property owned by an individual named [redacted] in Gamber, Maryland, and who works closely with [redacted].

The rally lasted several hours and was attended by 75-90 people, of whom 25-30 were Maryland Klan members wearing their robes. [redacted] had his own security force at the rally wearing white helmets and carrying billy clubs. Maryland State Police were also at this function which was orderly and which had no incidents. The rally terminated with a cross burning.

In attendance at this rally was [redacted] the Ohio NKKKK [redacted] who was accompanied by two associates from Ohio, [redacted]. Also in attendance were two Klansmen from Western Pennsylvania, who knew [redacted].

[redacted] gave a moderately toned speech re Klan propaganda, which was followed by a more militant and anti-Semitic one by [redacted]. [redacted] also spoke about his campaign for the Presidency of the U.S. [redacted] spoke briefly about the police state, but had to stop because of illness. Also speaking at this affair was an elderly Klansman from Maryland who told the crowd how glad he was to be a Klansman and a woman representing the Maryland NKKKK Women's Auxiliary.

A confidential source of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 20, 1975, that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, South Carolina Realm, (a characterization of which is attached hereto), held public rallies in the vicinity of York, South Carolina, on May 17 and 18, 1975. On the night of May 17, there were 13 robed Klansmen and 2 spectators. The rally was held deep in the woods because of the inability to obtain land closer to York, South Carolina. [redacted] spoke about the klan and its political role in society. [redacted] spoke on the racial problems and urged parents to be present at the schools on the last day to protect their children from any violence. The source stated his talk was definitely anti-Negro and abusive to the Negro race.

On Sunday evening, May 18, 1975, at the same location, there were 20 robed Klansmen and 10 spectators.

On April 30, 1975, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) (see appendix) rally was held at Gamber, Maryland on April 26, 1975, under the leadership of Maryland [redacted]
[redacted]

On May 30, 1975, source stated that the first speaker at this rally was the Maryland [redacted]
[redacted] Source stated that [redacted] speech lasted for approximately 30 to 40 minutes and during his entire speech he made no anti-semitic references and that his references to the black man were relatively mild in tone. [redacted] spent most of his speech talking about the destruction of our constitution, the destruction of our heritage and the destruction of the Christian faith, which is currently happening in this country. [redacted] felt that the Klan was the only salvation for these destructions.

Source stated that [redacted] introduced the next speaker, a robed Klanswoman in her early 30s, who is supposedly the head of the Maryland NKKKK Women's Auxiliary. Source advised that she was not an experienced speaker and during her 20 minute address she told the spectators why she joined the klan, why she was proud to be a klanswoman and the important role that a klanswoman should play in the NKKKK.

Source stated further that the next speaker was an elderly man, from Maryland, who spoke for approximately 45 minutes. Source stated that his speech was more radical than [redacted] address and this individual said that he was not afraid to die for his race and his nation. This speaker made several anti-semitic and anti-black statements and other traditional klan racist references. This speaker also stated that he anticipated a race war in America due to the current situation in this country.

Source advised that the next speaker on this occasion was the Ohio NKKKK [redacted]. Source stated that [redacted] only spoke for a few minutes and had to stop because of an illness. Source stated that [redacted] began his speech concerning the police state controlling the USA.

Source advised that the final speaker for this rally was the Ohio NKKKK [redacted]. Source stated that [redacted] gave a very radical speech in which he told the audience that he was a supporter for the Arab cause against the Jews. [redacted] termed the blacks and Jews as enemies and stated that if they did not want to leave this country, then God should have mercy on their souls. Source stated that at this point, [redacted] was being quite dramatic leaving the impression in his audience that some type of klan retaliation would occur if they did not leave the country. [redacted] also spoke very briefly concerning his campaign for the presidency of the U.S. in which he told the audience that when he became elected that there would be no more racial problems in this country.

Source advised that following the speeches, a cross illumination occurred, in which approximately 25 robed and unrobed klansmen participated. The rally terminated after the cross burning.

A confidential source of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 4, 1975, that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, South Carolina Realm, (a characterization of which is attached hereto), held public rallies in the vicinity of Andrews, South Carolina, on May 31, 1975, and June 1, 1975. On the night of May 31, 1975, at 9 p.m., a rally began and it was attended by 25 to 30 klansmen and about 5 spectators. The turnout was poor and probably attributed to lack of publicity and the remote location of the rally. [redacted] spoke on communism. [redacted] Greenville, South Carolina, spoke on ladies auxiliary of the klan and [redacted] of York spoke on problems of schools of York and said that due to the klan, bloodshed was avoided at the close of the schools because the klan people had been working to insure that all is orderly. No incidents occurred and no applications were received at this rally.

On the night of June 1, 1975, the rally began at 9 p.m. and was held at the same location near Andrews, South Carolina.

ReBHairtel and LHM 6/20/75.

Referenced LHM advises that on 5/23/75 klaverns in northern Alabama, formerly associated with the UKA, voted to leave the UKA and join the NKKKK.

of the Fort Payne, Klavern was elected and stated that the newly chartered NKKKK organization would "attempt to organize north Alabama before trying to spread out over the rest of the state."

It was also noted that of the UKA klavern in Chattanooga, Tennessee, withdrew his group from the UKA to join the NKKKK.

Review at FBIHQ reveals this is the first indication of NKKKK organizational success within the states of Alabama and Tennessee. Neither referenced airtel nor LHM indicates why these four klaverns have disassociated themselves from the UKA. Although advised that felt his klavern "would be better satisfied with the NKKKK," apparently no attempt was made to ascertain the sequence of events which precipitated this split.

On May 27, 1975, [] confidential source advised that James Venable, of the NKKKK, spoke at a Klan meeting in Fort Payne, Alabama on May 23, 1975. Venable was critical of the Federal Government, claiming that Jews had been placed in important positions in the government and it was up to the Klan and all "right-wing" groups to get these people out. Following another speech by a second NKKKK officer, [] asked how many Klaverns present were in favor of affiliating with the NKKKK. Representatives from four Klaverns were present and all voted to leave the UKA and join the NKKKK. These four were the Fort Payne Klavern; the Cullman, Alabama Klavern; the Hazel Green, Alabama Klavern; and the Chattanooga, Tennessee Klavern.

On June 18, 1975, [] source advised that an Alabama state meeting of the NKKKK was held at Fort Payne, Alabama on June 16, 1975 with approximately thirty individuals in attendance. The purpose of the meeting was to elect Alabama officers of the NKKKK. [] of Fort Payne, was elected [] Cullman, was elected [] of Alabama. NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN,
INCORPORATED, SOUTH CAROLINA REALM (KNOWN SCHEDULED RALLIES HELD AT PACOLET, SOUTH CAROLINA, JUNE 7 AND 8, 1975)

A confidential source of the FBI, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 11, 1975, that the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, South Carolina Realm (characterizations of which are attached hereto), held public rallies in the vicinity of Pacolet, South Carolina, on June 7 and 8, 1975, just outside an area known as Glendale. On the night of June 7, the rally began at 9:00 p.m., and was attended by 25 robed klansmen and 8 spectators. One of the speakers was [redacted] not further identified, who spoke on religion in the Klan. [redacted] gave a speech on communism. He stated that in the past communist had infiltrated the United States Government at high levels, and that the klan must be alert to stop communist from infiltrating the Government at this time or in the future. [redacted] of York, South Carolina, talked on how the York School System had racial problems when they mixed the two races. He stated that the races should have never been mixed. He stated that the school system has had money problems; however, the klan has worked in that area to prevent bloodshed, and was continuing to work to insure that all was orderly. [redacted] appears to be preoccupied with this topic and at times speaks of it in an inflammatory nature. No incidents occurred and three applications were received for membership.

On the night of June 8, 1975, at the same location, there were 10 robed klansmen and 25 spectators.

NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN

Formation

DECLASSIFIED BY SP8 u/j/gab
ON 9-1-88

On January 9, 1975, a source advised he had learned that approximately two months ago some ministers from the Charleston, West Virginia area, accompanied [redacted] in the anti-textbook movement in Kanawha County, W. Va., to Stone Mountain, Georgia, to ask assistance from the National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) (See Appendix) in the textbook controversy. The source stated [redacted] and the ministers had a meeting with James R. Venable Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK. Venable indicated at that time he would bring a staff of lawyers from Georgia to investigate the textbook situation in Kanawha County, W. Va.

It is to be noted that in late 1974 the Kanawha County School Board appraised certain textbooks for use by students. Certain individuals and groups consider the textbooks to be immoral, un-American, and anti-Christian, and have used various means, including picketing, demonstrations, and harrassment of School Board members to express their point of view.

On January 21, 1975, source advised that the NKKKK held a rally on the steps of the State Capitol Building, Charleston, W. Va., on January 18, 1975. The meeting started at approximately 12:00 noon with approximately 150 people in attendance. James R. Venable, Imperial Wizard of the NKKKK, was featured speaker at the meeting. The first speaker at the rally, [] was expected to become one of the leaders of the NKKKK, when established in Kanawha County. When Venable spoke he stated the NKKKK had come to Kanawha County at the request of [] and that the Klan intended to investigate the textbook situation. The rally lasted for about one hour.

At the completion of the rally at the Capitol Building, the Klan members and their supporters moved to the Charleston Civic Center where the NKKKK had a meeting at which approximately 500 people were present. Venable spoke to this gathering and was very outspoken in his criticism of Negroes, Catholics, Jews, and foreign-born individuals.

On January 23, 1975, source stated that James R. Venable arrived in Charleston, W. Va., on January 22, 1975, to confer with [] concerning the establishment of the NKKKK in Kanawha County, W. Va. Source stated the reason for Venable's return to Charleston was the unexpected response by local residents to the NKKKK, which resulted in a much larger number of requests for membership applications than was anticipated. Source stated [] has made public statements in which he announced the NKKKK is fully behind the anti-textbook movement.

On June 17, 1975, [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Klan rally at Witchers Creek, West Virginia on June 14, 1975, scheduled by Ohio National Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (NKKKK) (see appendix) [redacted] did not occur on that date as planned. Source stated that instead of a rally, [redacted] held an initiation ceremony for new members into the West Virginia Klan and that a brief meeting of the Klansmen in attendance took place that date.

On June 18, 1975, [redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Ohio NKKKK [redacted] arrived in the Witchers Creek, West Virginia area on June 14, 1975 with [redacted] several other Klansmen from Ohio [redacted] was noted driving a [redacted] bearing 1974 Ohio license plate [redacted]

Same source advised that [redacted] transported in this vehicle an M-12 Winchester shotgun, with a 20 inch barrel. This weapon was loaded with Western 00 Buck and [redacted] had about 25 rounds of these shells in his possession.

[redacted] advised further that at approximately 7:45 p.m. on June 14, 1975 an initiation ceremony was held by the West Virginia NKKKK at their Cabin Creek Headquarters. Approximately 35 to 40 Klan members were in attendance at this ceremony, at which time, almost 20 vehicles were noted parked in the parking lot outside this place. Source stated that the 13 Klan applicants were initiated into the West Virginia NKKKK, which applicants were of both sexes and of various ages. Source stated that all these individuals were presumably West Virginia residents.

Sources whose identities are concealed herein have furnished reliable information in the past except where otherwise noted.

Same source advised that immediately following this initiation ceremony a brief meeting was held at the Cabin Creek Headquarters by those in attendance. At this meeting, [redacted] expressed his hope to spend approximately three weeks in West Virginia commencing July 3, 1975, during which time period he would be "programing and recruiting" for the NKKKK. [redacted] further stated that he would "go across the state like a storm."

On June 18, 1975, [redacted] further advised that an individual named [redacted] attended the June 14, 1975 initiation and meeting. [redacted] bearing West Virginia license plates. [redacted] is further described as in his early 30s, with full light brown hair, medium build, 180 to 185 pounds, 5'10" to 5'11". [redacted] was noted not speaking with any pronounced accent.

Source also stated that [redacted] was also in attendance at the Cabin Creek Klan Headquarters on June 14, 1975 but that [redacted] did not participate in any Klan functions. Source stated that [redacted] is no longer [redacted] of the Ohley, West Virginia NKKKK Klavern, but is still a Klan member. Source advised that [redacted] stated that he wanted no part of the internal disunity within the Klan group in West Virginia. NATIONAL KNIGHTS OF THE KU KLUX KLAN,
INCORPORATED (NKKKK), SOUTH CAROLINA REALM (RALLIES SCHEDULED YORK, SOUTH CAROLINA,
JULY 19, 20, 1975)

On July 16, 1975, a source of the Columbia Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the NKKKK, South Carolina Realm (characterization of which is attached hereto in the Appendix) has scheduled rallies at York, South Carolina, on July 19 and 20, 1975.

The source advised that one of the speakers will be from North Carolina and that three individuals were coming to the rallies from West Virginia but the source did not know how many of these individuals would be listed as speakers. The source also advised that he did not know the exact location of the rally site at this time.

In discussions with [redacted] appears to be the reason for the split of a number of UKA Klaverns in Northern Alabama from the UKA and their coming into the NKKKK; [redacted] in his contacts with [redacted] had stated to him that the Alabama Klaverns were supporting [redacted] financially. In return for this financial aid, Klaverns were receiving no literature nor any help whatsoever from the Imperial Office. Therefore, [redacted] decided that he would rather go over into the NKKKK. He has also told [redacted] that he has a number of Klaverns who have been defunct for sometime who would probably also come into the NKKKK.

On a recent trip to Rising Sun, Maryland, [redacted]
[redacted] UKA Alabama [redacted] mentioned to [redacted] that [redacted] had at one time considered running for the [redacted] of the UKA for the State of Alabama. However, when he got little encouragement and support from UKA [redacted] he apparently decided to join the NKKKK, a group in which he developments have born this theory out since [redacted] was elected NKKKK [redacted] for the State of Alabama at a meeting early in June, 1975.

It is evident, therefore, that the split of the Klaverns in Northern Alabama was motivated by monetary as well as reasons of power. It should be kept in mind that once a NKKKK Charter is issued by Imperial Wizard JAMES R. VENABLE there are no directives, orders, instructions, or publications forthcoming from him. These Klaverns then, in effect, function as independent Klan groups [redacted] then, is now head of a Klan group in Northern Alabama and Tennessee which functions almost entirely under his control. He has in effect become a "big fish in a little pond." How much of the following he gets in Tennessee and Alabama remains to be seen. [redacted] have advised the split in the UKA was centered around [redacted] of the UKA, [redacted] had an intense desire to become [redacted] of Alabama in place of the current [redacted]. For the past several months, [redacted] has been attempting to persuade [redacted] of UKA, to replace [redacted] with [redacted] as there is a personality clash between [redacted]. Also, [redacted] desired more personal power within the UKA. [redacted] continued to support [redacted].

From the above, it appears that [redacted] had discussions with JAMES VENABLE of the NKKKK and realized he could become [redacted] of the NKKKK by entering this organization. He was, in fact, designated as Alabama [redacted] of the NKKKK [redacted].

Birmingham does not believe that any ideological changes are involved in the split as both organizations are similar in stated aims and purposes. It appears the principal motivation for the change was [redacted] personal ambition for higher office. As he was [redacted] at Ft. Payne, Alabama, and [redacted] in Northeast Alabama, he was able to influence the Cullman Klavern of the UKA and a recently organized small group at Hazel Green, Alabama, to leave the UKA and join the NKKKK. Also, it appears that the UKA Klavern at Chattanooga was formed principally through [redacted] efforts as the towns are in close proximity. As a result, [redacted] had a great deal of influence over this Klavern and was able to bring it into the NKKKK from the UKA.

Informant coverage of the NKKKK in Alabama is set forth in BH FD-405 dated 7/2/75.
